

A PROCESSION WITH CAROLS
on Advent Sunday, November 29

A PROCESSION OF CAROLS ON ADVENT SUNDAY

Sunday, November 29, 2009 • 7:30 PM

Lutheran Church of Honolulu

In a tradition made famous by Kings College, Cambridge, England, the Lutheran Church of Honolulu will present its 35th annual Advent Procession.

In a darkened sanctuary illuminated by candlelight, the Choir will present Advent carols and motets alternating with readings, including music by Peter R. Hallock, George Oldroyd, Charles Villiers Stanford, Francisco Guerrero, Hermann Schroeder, and Peter Wishart, in addition to an arrangement of the beloved hymn, “O come, o come Emmanuel” for choir, congregation, and handbells by Katherine Crosier.

You are invited to hear in word and song how the prophets of Israel foretold that God would visit and redeem his waiting people, a gift in the seasons on expectation before the coming of the Christ Child.

The church’s weekly Compline service will not be sung this evening.

Lutheran Church of Honolulu
1730 Punahou Street, Honolulu, HI 96822
Phone: 941-2566 • E-mail: lch@lchwelcome.org
www.lchwelcome.org

Ample parking at 1815 Poki Street

Annunciation by Orazio Gentileschi, c. 1623